Cooperation In India
Cheap Credit Cause
American Wheat

ALTHOUGH it is now over eighteen years since Lord Curzon established the co-operative movement in India, the wisdom of planting a movement of such a nature in a country peculiar for its abnormal social and economic conditions, coupled with illiteracy, rendered doubly deplorable by conservatism and ignorance, seems to be doubted today. Stated briefly, the facts are that originally the government of India laid stress on and almost considered the whole movement synonymous with cheap credit. It was this cheap credit, and not the principles of co-operation, which, after the spade work was over, served as a powerful solvent of the ignorance and prejudice of the peasantry, and, to use the words of the Government of India, "brought to the standard of cooperation vast numbers of the agricultural classes as though by beat of drum." Were it not for this cheap credit it is doubtful whether a Western scheme of such a kind would have achieved all those results in so short a space of time.

Boiled down, it amounts to this, that cheap credit has produced co-operation in India and not co-operation cheap credit, as it is known in Occidental lands. The two great problems that seem to confront cooperators in India at the present moment are the provision of liberal credit together with liberal period. If these problems cannot be solved, then it is feared that cooperation is foredoomed to failure in provinces subject to frequent drought. The system of finance, it is argued, has to change radically or be liberalised.

SITUATION HERE

Many enthusiasts of cooperative marketing and cooperative agricultural banking have been suggesting that China should inaugurate this movement. It must be confessed that the financial problem is far too big a one for the Chinese Republic in its present chronic financial straits to take up. The crux of the problem is the limited finance of the country. The first desideratum for the success of the cooperative movement in China would be the raising of a sufficiency of capital to allow of the adoption of a sufficiency of credit. The next question would be as to how to distribute liberal credit with a liberal allowance of time for its repayment. Liberal time in banking language means locked up money, and locked up money is a horror and a dread to every banker. Modern bankers are reluctant to lend money out even for a couple of years and if this is the case even in regard to the capitalisation of promising industries how much more difficult would it not be in the case of an agricultural industry with all its uncertainties. At any rate, the problem is a very important one for Chinese agriculture, and if a way could be found to solve the present difficulties it would pave the way for a remarkable future for the Chinese farmer.

AMERICAN WHEAT

The "Iron Age" has gone out of its way to criticise the campaign that is being at present made in the United States to make the people eat more wheat as a remedy for the low prices of the cereal. While agreeing that the suggestion that all of the people of the United States be led to eat more bread is indeed in conformity with the law of supply and demand, the journal states "the remedies that are proposed by charlatans, quacks and false prophets are so alarming by virtue of their disregard of the simplest principles of economics as to cause us to stand aghast. If more bread be consumed than is needful there is a direct invitation to profligacy in living which must be at the expense of the creation of capital goods."

The price of American wheat had been low owing to the inability of the United States farmers to market their surplus abroad in competition with other wheat-growing countries at anything but low prices, the diminished demand of Europe, owing to its poverty, being largely responsible for this. Also Europe has been raising more wheat of its own.

The question of rice fixing which the farmers of the United States have been prevailing upon Washington to take up is as preposterous as the one that the Chinese Cotton Millowners' Association undertook to carry out during the depression days of cotton yarn. Price-fixing would be a repudiation of the law of supply and demand that would be as sensible as a denial of the law of gravitation. The cure for present industrial evils lies not in

Exchange Rate Point At Issue In Important Case Before U.S. Court

Should Claims Be Paid On Rate Of Exchange When Ship Arrives Or When Claim Is Settled?

The American Sales Corporation sued the United States Shipping Board and the Pacific Mail Steamship Company before Judge Charles S. Lobingier in the U. S. Court for China yesterday on a claim for G. $1,700 alleged to have been suffered through the non-arrival of certain steel bars ordered by the plaintiffs and shipped on the defendants ships.

Mr. F. J. Schuhl of Schuhl & Schoenfeld appeared for the plaintiffs and Davies & Bryan and Mr. A. E. Seddon for the defendants.

The claim was made that in May, 1920 the Ed. L. Soule Co. of San Francisco shipped to Shanghai by the s.s. West Calera, owned by the first-named defendants and operated by the second-named defendants 1,460 bundles and pieces of corrugated concrete reinforcement bars which said merchandise was delivered to defendants and receipt given therefore, the merchandise being the property of and consigned to the plaintiff in Shanghai. The defendants, in the capacity of common carriers undertook to transport and deliver all the said merchandise to plaintiff in Shanghai. The shipment of bars arrived in Shanghai in June, 1920, and upon discharge it was found that 146 bundles were missing and short-landed caused by the negligence of the defendants in loading, shipping, stowing and discharging of the said merchandise. That by reason of the loss of the said 146 bundles the plaintiff has sustained damage in the sum of G. $1,752.42 and Tls. 277.39. That plaintiff has demanded payment from defendants of the aforesaid sums but defendants have refused and still refuse to pay same.

THE DEFENCE

The answer admitted that 145 bundles were missing and short-landed and alleged that on January 19, 1921, the plaintiff made a demand on the second named defendants for G. $1,704.07 being the amount claimed in full settlement of this claim against them on account of such missing and short-landed cargo; that on May 27, 1921, the said second-named defendants paid to the plaintiff the sum of Tls. 1,704.07, being the equivalent of G. $1,708.33 at the exchange of 100¼ which was the rate of exchange prevailing in Shanghai upon the day of the arrival of the s.s. West Calera, said payment being in full settlement of the plaintiff's claim.

In answer to the Court Mr. Schuhl said that he claimed the difference between Tls. 1,740 and that amount in Gold dollars—at the rate of exchange today.

Mr. Davies said the amount involved was not large, but the principle involved was vital not only to shipping companies but to insurance companies. He proposed to call evidence to show that it was the universal custom, and had been from time immemorial, that all claims paid by insurance companies were paid on the basis of the exchange on the day the ship arrived in port.

There was only one witness called for the plaintiff, Mr. R. P. Meyer, a German, who was connected with the plaintiff corporation in 1920. He said the rate of exchange when the ship arrived was 58¾. The transaction was entirely in gold dollars. He produced the contract between plaintiffs and the Chinese dealer which was in gold dollars.

For the defence, Mr. Davies said that the loss of the goods was admitted. The defence was that they had paid the claim in full by a cheque for Tls. 1,704, which was equivalent to plaintiff's claim in gold dollars at the rate of exchange on the day on which the ship arrived in Shanghai. The defendants claimed that this was the custom of all shipping companies operating ships between the United States and foreign ports and particularly between the U. S. and China; and on that custom evidence would be called.

THE EVIDENCE

Mr. J. C. Hill of the Pacific Mail testified that he had paid the claim of G. $1,708.33 with a check for Tls. 1,704.07 because it was the customary practice to pay all claims in local currency. The practice, he said, was universal among companies operating between the United States and China. Between 3,000 and 4,000 claims had been settled in a like manner previously, he said, including about 20 for the same commodity under like conditions.

Mr. Hill said that he had never paid a claim on the basis of the rate of exchange on the day the claim was settled. The practice, he said, was to make payment on the basis of the rate of exchange on the date of the arrival of the ships.

Mr. Hill also said that the Shipping Board Conference had laid down a rule that claims should be settled on that basis.

Mr. Leonard Everett, and Mr. Charles A. Perkes, traffic manager of The Robert Dollar Company gave similar testimony after which counsel were instructed to file briefs. Judgment was reserved.

EMPIRE CRUISE BEING PLANNED ON VAST SCALE

British Warships Will Make Notable Trip Around The Globe

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 18.—The only thing hitherto approaching the scale of the forthcoming Empire cruise was that of the American warships 15 years ago.

The cruise will embrace the west and east coasts of Africa, Singapore, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and the United States. The heavy ships will go through the Panama Canal and the lighter vessels round Cape Horn, visiting South America. It is hoped that during their visit to Australia the ships will have an opportunity for practice with the Australian fleet units.

DOCTORS AND MINISTRY AT LOGGERHEADS

Crisis Develops In British Medical Insurance System

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 18.—A crisis has developed in the State medical insurance system. The Minister of Health's rejection of the panel doctors' request for arbitration on his offer to reduce their fee by one shilling to 8-6 led to a private meeting of doctors throughout Britain today, convoked by the Insurance Acts Committee of the British Medical Association. Two hundred doctors were present. The meeting unanimously rejected the offer.

This is expected to lead to the resignation of the doctors, who are credited with the intention to launch their own medical service.

Approved societies yesterday decided to resist any call on their funds beyond the fee of 7s. 3d.

WAICHOW FALLS BEFORE ATTACK OF SUN YAT-SEN

Chen Chiung-ming's Forces Evacuate City After Battle

(Eastern News Agency)

Canton, Oct. 18.—The combined Cantonese troops opened a general attack on Waichow last night with the result that this morning at 6 o'clock the troops under the command of General Chen Chiung-ming took to flight towards the North Gate of the city and the combined troops have entered the city by the South Gate. A fierce fight is now raging between the two contending forces. It is generally believed that Waichow will fall in a day or two.

Reports received by vernacular papers here state that the complete capture of Waichow has already been achieved by Sun Yat-sen's forces. The city has been the local point in an attack which has extended over several weeks past.

U. S. LAUNCHES GREAT DRIVE TO ENFORCE PROHIBITION

Governors Will Confer With Coolidge On Plans

MANY DRY RAIDS

52 New York Cabarets And Saloons Closed

(BY UNITED PRESS)

Washington, Oct. 19.—Governors of thirty states, who are convened at Indianapolis now for their annual conference, have accepted the invitation extended by President Calvin Coolidge to meet at the White House on Saturday for a discussion of means of enforcing the prohibition laws.

It is reported that the proposal will be made at that time for amalgamating the federal and state prohibition enforcement forces for a great drive on the illicit liquor traffic throughout the United States.

(BY UNITED PRESS)

New York, Oct. 19.—Federal prohibition enforcement officers today obtained restraining orders enjoining fifty-four cabarets and saloons from further operation. The injunctions were issued on allegations by the federal officers that the places complained of had been engaged in the illicit sale of liquor in violation of the prohibition amendment.

It is understood that this is merely the start of one of the greatest prohibition enforcement drives undertaken here since the amendment went into effect. The plans of the federal officers, it is said, include the closing of 2,000 saloons and cabarets throughout the city, among them many places which have a nation-wide reputation.

As a result of the drive, operations of bootleggers here have already been severely checked.

Russian Given Three Years For Brutal Attack On Wife

Alexander Lunafeyon, Russian, was sentenced to three years' imprisonment by Assessor Ivanoff and Magistrate Tsang of the Mixed Court yesterday for brutally attacking his wife with a knife at 446 Taku Road on the night of September 30, causing injuries which nearly resulted in her death and from which she may never entirely recover.

Owing to the defense which the accused put up the charge of attempted murder which had been brought against him was dismissed, and he was convicted on a charge of assault and causing serious injuries. At the expiration of his sentence he will be deported from Shanghai.

The complainant, still obviously suffering from her wounds which the doctor described as the most ghastly he had ever seen—attributed the attack to unreasoning jealousy. They had only been married about a fortnight, she said, and she was working as a nurse for the child of a Mr. Ishenoff at 446 Taku Road. She was obliged to work as her husband was unemployed, though he had assured her that he was to secure work just after they were married. Her husband lived next door to the Ishenoff's at 445 Taku Road, and on the night in question he had come into her room, where she was sleeping with the child and thrust a photograph into her hand. She saw the knife in his hand. She thought the knife that was used was larger than the one produced in court—though this was a butcher knife with a blade over a foot long. He started striking her with the knife without speaking. He had previously quarreled with her over having to live in separate rooms. The photograph which he had given her was a picture of Mr. and Mrs. Ishenoff their child and herself.

ACCUSED TESTIFY

The accused, in his defense, admitted the assault but declared that he had not meant to kill his wife and attributed his action to jealousy of Ishenoff. When his wife was with him alone, he said, there was no trouble and they got along well, but when Ishenoff was present she abused him. The third day after their wedding she had told him that she did not want to live with him.

On the evening of the trouble, the witness stated, Mr. Ishenoff came in and "interfered" with himself and wife. She took the child to bed and Ishenoff followed her upstairs, where they sat and talked for some time. Later, he

CANADA'S BAN ON JAPANESE IS HELD VOID

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 19.—The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council has dismissed an appeal from the Supreme Court of Canada in an action to which the Attorney-General of British Columbia and the Attorney-General of Canada are parties, relating to employment of Japanese labor in the Dominion. The Committee held that the British Columbian Act passed in April, 1921, enabling restriction of employment of Oriental labor, was contrary to the provisions of the Treaty of 1913 between His Majesty and the Emperor of Japan and conflicted with the British North America Act.

Second Trial Begins In Hangchow Poisoning Plot

(China Press Correspondence)

Hangchow, Oct. 19.—Before the highest court in Chekiang and in a crowded courtroom Yu Er-hen began anew the fight for his life here today. Yu Er-hen is the student who last spring was accused of poisoning the entire student body of the Chekiang First Normal School by hiring cooks to put arsenic in the school rice. As a result of the poisoning twenty-two students and two servants died and more than two hundred students were brought to death's door.

The trial of Yu, the two college cooks Dzien Ah-li and Pi Ho-zang; and Yu Tsang-fah, cousin of Yu Er-hen, accused as accomplices of Yu was held in the lower court during the summer and resulted in sentences of death for the first three and five year's imprisonment for the second Yu. Their case was appealed and is now before the upper court. If conviction is secured here the case will go to Peking for final decision.

In contrast with the quiet trial of the summer, the case is now attracting large attention. In the opening session of the trial the courtroom was crowded with former fellow students of the defendant, many of whom suffered the pangs of intense suffering last spring as they battled with the effects of the terrible poison in their system. Some have not yet recovered from the experience.

In the trial this time the defence is introducing new witnesses, two of whom are women, in order to establish an alibi for Yu. One of the women witnesses testified that Yu, with her brother and other Normal School students, was gambling in her home on the evening of the tragedy in the school. The second is proprietress of a tea shop near the Normal School and through her they hope to prove that Yu was in her shop on the evening when the prosecution claims the opium was secured. Unfortunately for the purpose in mind, neither of the witnesses knows the defendant. Though the defence hopes through friends of Yu to make good the two claims.

Another important witness is Yu Nai-pin, an uncle of Yu Er-hen. He is testifying that he was in a restaurant gambling with Yu on the fatal evening of the tragedy and that at the time of the purchase of the arsenic he was with his nephew in a tea shop. He is testifying also that he heard Yu Er-hen and his cousin Yu Tsang-fah say that they were planning to do something at the Normal, though he did not understand what it was they were planning to do. Yu himself has not yet been called to testify. The Court has taken a recess until next week to review the evidence presented.

IMPOSSIBLE

Can't Enforce Dry Law Under U. S. Plan

(Exclusive China Press)

Washington, Oct. 19.—William Allen White, the famous Kansas editor and publisher, after a long conference with President Coolidge today, issued a statement in which he asserted that it was impossible for the Government to enforce the provisions of the prohibition amendment under the present system which allows United States senators to control the appointment of federal prohibition enforcement officials in their states.

ILLEGAL ARMY OF 100,000 PLANS RISING IN GERMANY, SAXON PREMIER CHARGES

Saxons Break With Bavaria And Berlin In Quarrel Over Decrees Issued By General Mueller—Troops Prepared To Move On Communists

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Remarkable scenes occurred today in the Saxon Diet, where the Premier, Herr Zeigner, in a speech declared that it was a fact that the Reich had an illegal army. Many of these illegal organisations in the neighborhood of Berlin would have attempted a rising at the beginning of October, but were prevented by Prussian police. They had been training four to six weeks this summer at Koenigsbrueck, and a hundred thousand of their members had lately enrolled in the Reichswehr and were armed. The Entente knew these things and would put an end to them.

A member of the People's Party retorted, accusing Herr Zeigner of open treachery.

A tumult among the Communists followed, whereupon the Nationalists walked out of the House.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Oct. 18.—The differences between the Imperial and Saxon Governments, which have been exacerbated by General Mueller's peremptory decrees, have now extended to a quarrel between Saxony and Bavaria. The former has announced its intention of changing its Charge d'Affaires at Munich and the Bavarian Government has refused to recognise his successor as long as Communists are included in the Saxon Cabinet. Bavaria also has recalled its Minister from Dresden.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Food disturbances at Mannheim culminated in the police yesterday evening firing on the demonstrators, of whom they killed seven and wounded many.

A party of demonstrators were hemmed in between German police and French soldiers on Necker Bridge. A great number were wounded and 60 arrested.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Oct. 18.—The newspapers emphasise the identic character of the replies made simultaneously by M. Poincare and M. Jaspar to the demarches of the German Charges d'Affaires at Paris and Brussels. The assertion of the Reich that it cannot pay German industrialists for deliveries in kind is considered all the more inadmissible as reimbursement of the industrialists might be carried out in paper marks. By what miracle, the Temps asks, does the note-printing press find itself paralysed before this defence alone, when according to the Treaty all German revenues must be "appropriated by privilege to the payment of the sums due by her as reparations."

The Journal des Debats complains that Chancellor Stresemann openly shows good-will, while endeavouring to deprive France of the benefit of the new system whatever may be his disagreement with Herr Stinnes on internal policy, he is manoeuvring in agreement with him in the Ruhr.

The Journal des Debats publishes a recent declaration by a German who says: What France needs is energetic and unequivocal pressure against that part of Germany that is Nationalist and refractory on the subject of reparations. It is only by exercising that pressure that France can aid democratic Germany and rally a section of public opinion sufficiently to overcome the obstinant resistance of an infernal clique resolved to drive matters to extremities even as far as civil war." "In my opinion," the German speaker concluded, "British intervention has fatally encouraged the worst elements in my country.

Work is being resumed normally in the occupied territory. There was a rush of applications for work from the railwaymen yesterday. At Duesseldorf the former German station-master and his two assistants expressed their eagerness to collaborate with the Regie. In the Essen district 10,000 railwaymen have enrolled for work. Enrollments totalled 2,000 at Mayence, 1,500 at Treves and 4,500 at Duren.

According to the London Daily News, General Mueller and 15 battalions of Reichswehr are ready to march against the Saxon Communist centuries. The newspapers emphasise the contrast between the attitude of the Berlin Cabinet towards Saxony and Bavaria.

Filibuster of Democratas Will Prove Failure, Is Belief

(Exclusive China Press)

Manila, Oct. 19.—Members of the Democrata party in the legislature today conducted a filibuster on the resolution introduced by Sergio Osmena which provides for ratification by the legislature of the resignations of the members of the council of state.

The resolution was expected to pass this afternoon despite the opposition of the Democratas. If it does pass, it will be tantamount to legislative defiance of Governor-General Wood.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Secretary of War Weeks announced today that he had again cabled Governor General Leonard Wood of the Philippines that the United States government is squarely behind him in his administration of the Philippines and that he will be given a free hand to decide on what is necessary.

(Exclusive China Press)

New York, Oct. 19.—Members of the Philippine-American Chamber of Commerce held a meeting here today and expressed the opinion that arrangements should be made for a compromise between the United States government and the Filipinos whereby the present political conflict might come to an end.

American investors in the Philippines are anxious to see an agreement which would solve the political status of the islands, the members said. They declared that investors were afraid to put new capital into the islands now because of the political uncertainties and because the Filipinos are suspicious of their motives.

Pedro Guevara, junior resident commissioner of the Philippines at Washington, spoke at the meeting on the present political situation in the Philippines.

Water Transport In France Greater

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Oct. 18.—Movements of inland water transport in France show new and important progress, having increased from 7,626,000 metric tons during the first quarter of 1923 to 9,409,000 tons during the second quarter, an increase of 1,783,000 metric tons.

HARBIN GIVES LIBERALLY TO AID JAPANESE

British Section Collects Sizeable Fund For Relief

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, Oct. 14.—In spite of the fact that most of the large British firms in Harbin were precluded form contributing, inasmuch as their head offices had already subscribed for the whole of China, e.g. the Hongkong & Shanghai Banking Corporation having donated $50,000 and other firms having given large amounts also, the final statement of the British Section of the Harbin Japan Relief Fund is a most satisfactory one. The details are as follows:

	Yen
1. Subscription of individuals	812.62
2. Subscription of local British firms	4.300.00
3. Lopat Sons, Ltd.,	950.73
4. British Chamber of Commerce	100.00
5. Cinema performances	501.20
6. Subscription dance at Harbin Club	666.00

On this occasion the British Committee had the honor of receiving contributions from the following:

H. E. General Chu Ch'ing Lan	100.00
General Chang Huan Hsiang	120.00
Mr. Tsai Yun Sheng	100.00
General Ma Shung Chun	100.00
7. British members of the Chinese Postal Administration	140.00
Gold Yen	7.890.55

The list of subscriptions of individuals is headed by His Britannic Majesty's Consul Mr. Herbert Phillips O. B. E. whose able assistance in the organising work was largely responsible for the excellent results.

Two Accidents Kill Two On Tsinpu Line

Two railway accidents occurred on the Tientsin Pukow, and Peking Mukden line a few days ago. Two Chinese were killed and 12 injured. Despite the fact that railway officials denied that any wreck had occurred some concern was manifested for the safety of the passengers when the "Blue Express" which left Pukow on Sunday night at 9.30 p.m. and should have arrived at the Chien Men station yesterday at 1.30 a.m. and did not arrive until five hours later.

Curiously enough it was the same train which had left the Chien Men station at 3.30 the previous afternoon and passengers from Pukow reported a series of mishaps none of which was particularly serious.

According to passengers from Pukow, two goods trains had collided at Kuahan in Shantung effectually blocking the main line past that point which is not very far distant from Tsinan. When the "Up" Express arrived passengers were informed that they would have to wait until the Peking "Down" train arrived and then be transferred to it, in order that they might proceed to Peking.

The exchange of passengers was made without incident and the Peking Train returned. However, while entering the yards outside Fengtai, another goods train, ahead of the Blue Express, composed of an engine and four goods vans was crossing the switch across the main line towards the station. The rear van was still on the switch when the express arrived and another collision occurred. Fortunately the express was travelling at a slow rate otherwise a serious accident might have occurred. The goods van was derailed and the engine, baggage car, and two first class coaches were slightly damaged. The passengers all received a good shaking up, but all escape with nothing more than a few bruises. There was considerable delay in clearing the track, but the undamaged portion of the Blue Express was switched on to another track and proceeded into Peking without further incident.

Labor Conditions In Japan Will Readjust Themselves, Is Hope

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Oct. 12.—The labor conditions which were naturally thrown into confusion by the earthquake, are expected gradually to recover as the practical work of reconstructing the devastated area is put in hand. For skilled as well as unskilled labor there is likely to be a big demand, and wages are likely to soar, unless the Government follows the lead of the Tokio Municipality in adopting a measure for their regulation.

In the early part of this month the Tokio Municipality enforced a scale of daily wage for its employees, whereby skilled carpenters and others are paid at rates varying between Y.5 and Y.3: unskilled laborers and jobmen between Y.2.60 and Y.2.

While it is expected that there will be plenty of work available for the manual laborer, the office employes of commercial houses and other salaried workers will find it difficult to secure work for some months to come. It is certain that as many firms as possible will retain their employees to the utmost of their capacity, even at reduced salaries, and the attempt has already been made to draft as many as possible into other cities.

Now it is reported that the Reconstruction Board is planning to engage a considerable number of "temporary officials," whose business it will be to readjust official records that have been destroyed. The Department of Communications and other departments will also, it is said, be able to employ a considerable number of such "officials" on work of a similar kind for about one year.

Chinese Authorities Drawing Up Own Plans Despite Protests

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, Oct. 14.—It appears that the dispute over the Land Department of the Chinese Eastern Railway remains unsettled. The Chinese authorities have appointed their own officials to examine the land sections of the railway and to draw up plans of them without any regard for the Railway Administration, and their own Land Department continues to function, ignoring all the protests of the Powers and the statements made here by the American Minister, Doctor Shurman. The Chinese authorities are stated to be supported in their action and their endeavors to seize the land of the Railway by M. Karakhan in Peking. At the same time Chinese commercial circles are displaying increasing dspleasure at the measures adopted by their authorities in view of the approaching export campaign, which will be seriously hampered by the perplexity and confusion over the land question.

(Independent News Service)

Changsha, Oct. 14.—The little island of Sullochow between this city and Yoloshan across the river where Tan Yen-kai is stationing his forces in opposition to Chao Heng-ti has been the target of desultory gun-firing from Mount Yolo. The Sullochow Island is the place where most of the foreigners here have their residential quarters and the British Consulate and many foreign firms are located there as well.

The necessity of having the firing stopped at an early date has been brought up with Chao Heng-ti and Tan Yen-kai through the offices of several Consuls here, but the proposal has been ignored it looks. Many Chinese have been shot dead, and the danger of foreigners being hit is just as great.

General Lo Ti-ping is keeping his troops on the Island declaring a neutral stand in the struggle. But there has been evidence that his troops are the ones who invite firing from Mount Yolo, when the troops are simply returning the firing on them by the neutral general.

DR. KOO QUITS FOR GOOD, IS PEKING BELIEF

Foreign Minister Absents Himself From The Waichiaopu

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Oct. 19.—Reuter's Agency learns from a reliable official source that as the result of the persuasion of President Tsao Kun and Mr. Kao Lang-wei, Dr. Wellington Koo has consented to remain at the head of the Waichiaopu till a new Cabinet is formed.

Peking, Oct. 19.—Dr. Wellington Koo has not attended the Waichiaopu for four days. It is considered very doubtful whether he will reconsider his resignation.

The newly appointed Tuli of Shantung, General Cheng Shin-chi, has formally resigned but the Government refused to accept his resignation and urged him to take up his post.

Mr. Wu Ching-lien's supporters are still actively working for his nomination as Premier but the military leaders are still opposing him and have telegraphed that they are in favor of Dr. W. W. Yen.

Car Goes In River; Driver Claims Poor Lighting Is Cause

Charged with driving a motor car while under the influence of liquor—as a consequence of which the machine went into the river at Liping Road—Alexander P. Shevtzoff appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday, when he was cautioned and discharged. The defendant declared that the accident was due to the poor lighting of the street, which gave it the look of being straight, whereas there is a sharp bend near the bunding.

F. Paletoka, Russian, also appeared before Assessor Ivanoff and Magistrate Tsang yesterday on a traffic violation charge and was fined $3 for failing to obey police signals at the corner of Boone Road and Broadway. T. Feddepeff, 127 Szechuen Road, was fined $2 for driving on the wrong side of Bubbling Well Road.

Obituary

MR. JACK HARVEY

Mr. Jack Harvey, well-known automobile and tire man, died suddenly in his home at 9A Hankow Road yesterday morning after a long illness. He was 30 years of age.

Mr. Harvey has been suffering from intestinal trouble for some time and had just been released from the General Hospital. He was thought to be on the road to recovery. Yesterday morning he asked the 'boy' to bring him a drink and when the 'boy' returned he found him unconscious. Dr. Bolton was immediately called and did everything possible but he was dead.

Mr. Harvey had been a resident of Shanghai for ten years and up until his last illness had been the manager of the Tire department of the Central Garage. He is survived by his aged widowed mother in Worle, Westonshire, Somerset, England, and by his wife, formerly Miss Bernice Smith, official court reporter and Deputy Clerk of the United States Court. Mrs. Harvey is at present in Florence, Italy.

The funeral will be held at Bubbling Well Cemetery at 5 o'clock this afternoon. All friends are invited.

Discuss Plans To Get Japan Trade

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 18.—Sir Edward Crowe, Commercial Counsellor to the British Embassy at Tokio, addressing the members of the Aldwych Club on the subject of trade opportunities in Japan in consequence of the earthquake, said that the British Embassy and the Department of Overseas Trade were prepared to help, but it was advertising and the skill of manufacturers and salesmen, together with the quality of their goods, which would be the determining factor.

Mrs. Ford Rebukes Women Who "Roll Their Own"

Mrs Henry Ford. NYZ

WHILE motoring through Michigamme, Mich., Mrs. Henry Ford was besieged for her autograph by a crowd of "bungalow" girls from Chicago, dressed in short overalls and shorter stockings. Mrs. Ford turned in scorn from the party. "You ladies and girls are showing very poor taste and worse judgment in coming into town garbed as you are, without skirts and dresses," she said. "I do not want to sign my name for you and prefer not to look at you. I resent your idea of dress."

Quake Deaths In Country Zones Total 9,500 Report

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Osaka, Oct. 12.—Problems of reconstruction, in so far as they have been reported and discussed, have been so largely concerned with the Capital as to create the impression in some quarters that the Capital was the favored interest with the officials. Despite official or semi-official statements that this was not the case, a comparison of the degree to which the cities of Tokio and Yokohama, for instance, have already been cleared up and normal communications restored might lead to the conclusion that there was a certain element of truth in the allegation.

Much more is this said to be the case with the country districts affected, where the necessary information regarding losses has taken longer to collect. A report of the damage in the country districts of the prefectures visited by the disaster is now available. According to the figures published, the loss of life totalled about nine thousand five hundred persons, while the number of houses damaged was over two hundred and fifty thousand. At the same time the various Agricultural Associations have been investigating the problem of restoring the farms in the devasted area and will present a joint report to the Imperial Agricultural Conference opening in Kyoto on October 27. This conference is expected to take up in all its aspects the question of relief and the supply of materials, especially of fertilisers, for the farming communities.

Japan will hardly be regarded as a habitable land, if all the earthquake prophecies are to be taken seriously. At a meeting held here two nights ago, when the problems of earthquakes and city planning were being discussed, a certain Dr. Akitsune Imamura, who claims, like the famous seismologist, Dr. Omori, to have predicted the recent Tokio earthquake at least eighteen years ago, stated that, in his opinion, Osaka and the neighborhood would at some time in the future be visited by earthquake, though he was unable to predict the exact time. The plans already drawn up for the remodelling or extension of such cities as Osaka and Kobe are likely to be considerably modified in view of the recent disaster. Several parties of experts have already left for Tokio in order to investigate the effects of the earthquake and to discuss matters with those responsible for the city plans in the capital and in Yokohama. The possible fate of a crowded city like Osaka in face of a similar calamity is being frequently discussed here, and all are agreed that the first essential is a larger number of open spaces.

Daily Mail Raps Singapore Project

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 19.—It is reported that the Imperial Conference yesterday deliberated on the Singapore scheme. The Daily Mail strongly attacks the plan on the ground of the need for economy and for avoiding friction with Japan, who has recently given every evidence of her sincere desire for peace and for whom the nation still feels a real affection. The paper declares that at best, if trouble comes with Japan, we shall have provided another Kiaochow.

MEMORIAL FOR QUAKE VICTIMS HELD IN TOKIO

Impressive Rites Conducted On Site Of Honjo Factory

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, Oct. 19.—A grand memorial service for upward of 100,000 victims of the earthquake disaster was solemnized today on the site of the Military Clothing Factory at Honjo under the auspices of Tokio city. On the place for the religious service, a bier, 30 feet wide and 60 feet long, was erected and in front of the sacred altar there were placed flowers arranged in vases and offerings of various descriptions presented by their Majesty the Emperor and the Empress as well as the Prince Regent.

Among those present were Viscount Goto, Minister of Home Affairs; General Tanaka, Minister of War; General Yamanashi, Commander-in-Chief of the troops under martial law, and a large number of distinguished officials and civilians, including foreigners. Tens of thousands of members of bereaved families, with tears in their eyes, prayed with joined hands to the spirits of the deceased.

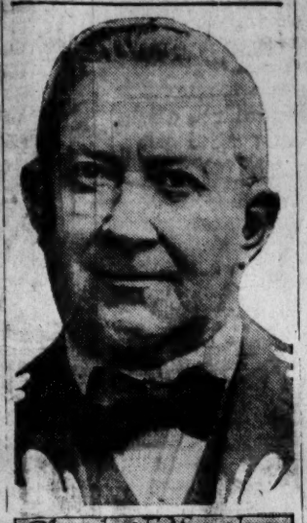
Sub-Dean Spencer Goes To England

The Rev. C. E. Spencer, Sub-Dean of Holy Trinity Cathedral, and Mrs. Spencer, sailed yesterday for England on the s.s. Hakusan Maru, where he will in the future be Vicar of the Church of the Ascension in Portsmouth.

The Sub-Dean was the guest of honor at a farewell reception given by the Very Rev. Dean Symons on Thursday.

He came to Shanghai in 1920 as Port Chaplain and was in charge of the Mission to Seamen until 1922 when he was made Sub-Dean of the Cathedral. During his time in Shanghai he has taken a leading part in the activities of the Moral Welfare League and was a member of the interport cricket team.

Tammany Boss Fails To Win Suit



Charles F. Murphy

A jury in New York failed to agree in the suit for $173,000 brought by Tammany Boss Charles F. Murphy against Louis N. Hartog. Murphy alleged that he invested the money with Hartog in a glucose deal, but that he wanted to get out because, he alleged, Hartog was a war profiteer. It was alleged Murphy was brought into the company merely that his political influence could get glucose for Hartog during the war. For the first time in his 20 years as a political power Murphy went on the stand and withstood a severe grilling from Hartog's attorney.

WHEAT POOLS PLANNED

The setback to the Canadian western wheat crop has come as a cold douche to the business and financial community in Canada, and the situation is one of anxiety to bankers in that country. It is interesting to mention that wheat pools are being planned. The movement is under the experienced guidance of Mr. Aaron Sapiro of California, and a committee consisting of farmers, merchants and the grain trade is working out the details of the scheme. It is contended that with the present price of Canadian wheat there is no profit for the farmer and little inducement to plant the same acreage next season. The situation is similar to what appears to exist in the United States, and just how each country is going to solve the present difficulties will be interesting to watch. It would seem that the Shanghai flour mills have a fine opportunity of buying all the supplies they need to keep them going for the rest of the season. It might very likely pay them to lay in stocks now.

said, his wife called for Ishenoff, who was then downstairs. She had demanded that the witness return all of his photographs and told him "to go to the devil." He asked her, he said, to be allowed to stay 20 or 30 minutes, as he was going away next day and might not see her again. She, however, told him again to "go to the devil" as she wanted to sleep.

When he left the house she followed him to the entrance and "banged" the door behind him. The witness stated that when he reached his own house he leaned out of the window "for fresh air" and heard his wife telling Ishenoff about the interview and laughing at him. He then heard her call Ishenoff upstairs, he said, and explained to the Assessor that owing to the houses being built together and the thinness of the partitions it was possible to hear what was being said in the adjoining rooms.

INTENDED TO BEAT HER

"I became very angry at this, the defendant stated, "especially as she had refused to spend my last evening with her and I drank a half-pint of vodka to make myself quiet. After supper I intended to take her photographs to her and to beat her in the presence of Mr. Ishenoff, if he should be there. Thinking he might defend her I took the knife to defend myself. As it was too large for my pocket I tucked it inside the waistband of my trousers.

DESCRIBES ASSAULT

"I asked my wife's permission to enter her room. By the time I had got upstairs my head was turning. On entering the room, which was half dark, I saw my wife in bed. I had all the photographs she had asked for in my pocket except one which I held in my hand and which I handed her. Just at this time the knife slipped down my trousers and I picked it up. I did not know quite what I was doing, but I started to strike my wife with the knife. As the room was dark I could not see the blood and I continued striking her. She afterward got up and went to the center of the room and I then saw the blood stains on the bed and realised what I had done.

"There was no one else there so I went downstairs and to another house and called for assistance and sent someone to a dispensary to get dressings for my wife's wounds. After that I went back to my own house and changed my clothes, putting the knife inside the clothes which I took off. I then waited to be arrested, which I was, about 15 or 20 minutes later."

Sub-Inspector Mills then gave testimony regarding Lunafeyon's conduct after arrest, stating that he made no effort to escape.

Lunafeyon asked for a remand in order to bring witnesses to prove that there was jealousy between himself and Ishenoff and Mr. J. Em. Lemiere told the Court that he would undertake to defend the accused without charge in the event that he did not have funds. The Court, however, held that no further hearing was necessary and gave sentence.

Great Boxing Show To Be Staged Next Friday In Ballroom Of New Carlton

Tingle To Meet Chadwick; Garcia, Tigora, De Dios And Others On Card; Sam Davis And Dr O'Hara Back Of Enterprise

By Westa

Next Friday night, in the ballroom of the New Carlton Cafe, there will be a program of boxing which on paper listens like the best card of the kind ever offered in Shanghai. The event is to be conducted under strict amateur rules, with silver cups for the winners, and is being sponsored by some of the leading sportsmen of the city.

Arrangements for the event were made at a tiffin at the New Carlton yesterday, attended by the promoters of the affair, by newspaper representatives, and by a number of boxers, including Billy Tingle, Sailor Chadwick, De Dios, Garcia and others. At this meeting Messrs. Sam Davis and Dr. O'Hara, who are among the prime movers in the new enterprise, outlined their plans for a movement designed to put boxing on a high plane in Shanghai. Advantage was to be taken of the fact that a number of really high class mitt wielders were in the city at present, to arrange a card that would attract all of the better elements, including women. To insure this two steps were necessary. First, to stage the bouts in a proper setting, and second, to have a matchmaker on the job who could and would see to it that the scrappers were matched in a way that would insure clean, fast and scientific exhibitions.

THE MAIN EVENT

It was then announced that the headliner at Friday's program would be a fifteen round match between Billy Tingle, champion of Australia, and Sailor Chadwick, the British navy boy who created such a fine impression here some time ago when he fought Captain Matty Smith to a draw at the Stadium.

For the semifinal it was stated that Garcia and Tigora would be brought together again. These lads have already shown their wares here and both demonstrated that they are boxers of the whirlwind order.

The preliminaries will include a ten round bout between Favacho and Toledo, and another between Faustino De Dios and Joe Garlang, the latter a newcomer from the Philippines.

This, to those who have seen these boys in action, constitutes an array of talent that would be hard to beat for one evening's entertainment. The main event, between Tingle and Chadwick, undoubtedly will be a hummer. The navy boy is one of the finest little scrappers ever seen in action here—so good that even Matty Smith couldn't take his number. Matty admitted afterwards that in his more than two hundred ring battles he had never found a fighter so hard to "get at" as Chadwick. As to Billy Tingle, those who saw him in action at the Stadium last week are a unit in declaring him to be one of the fastest and most scientific little men they ever saw in action in the ring.

WELL KNOWN BATTLERS

The other names on the card are very well known. Garcia is the lad from whom Tingle wrested the title of bantam weight champion of the Orient, and according to Manila papers Billy had the job of his life in besting the Filipino boy.

The bouts, as stated, are to be under amateur rules with cups, and of course the chance to win titles, for the winners. Mr. Ladow, of the Carlton, has presented a very fine cup for the winner of the main event, and this beautiful trophy will be on display at the Carlton in a few days.

In order to stage the bouts properly a ring will be erected in the center of the Carlton ballroom. Chairs will be placed around the ring, with box seats at the rear and in the balcony. In this manner it is thought that seats can be found for some twelve hundred spectators. It is the aim of the promoters to make it a "dinner clothes" affair, and all ladies who wish to attend are assured that nothing in the least objectionable will be seen or heard at the bouts.

As a matter of fact the chief aim of those who have the affair in charge is to convince the residents of Shanghai that boxing contests, when indulged in between boys who are in good condition and are properly matched, constitute as fine entertainment as the most meticulous could ask with no objectionable features whatever. These men realise that in the minds of most of those who never saw a real boxing bout the main idea is for the boys to spatter each others' noses all over the map, with attendants to mop up the blood, and it is this idea that it is hoped to dissipate.

Friday's bouts are to be conducted along the lines of those at the National Sporting club, in London; where boxing, due to the "tone" with which the matches are surrounded, has come to be looked upon as clean, high class entertainment. The same thing can be accomplished here, it is believed, and Friday's program is to be the first step in that direction.

Dr. O'Hara, recognised as one of the city's leading sportsmen, will referee the bouts.

The Dog Watch

By Westa

YESTERDAY afternoon, beginning about four o'clock, a neighborhood of the American Consulate became enveloped in an atmosphere of pinkest pink. Pink, as a matter of fact, is no name for it, for to tell the plain truth there is no word in the language that will quite describe it.

If a flock of pixies had flown through the windows of the old brick structure in which the Consul-General and his staff are housed, and had deposited certified checks for a million gold dollars on the desk of every worker there the smiles would have been no broader than they were. The ricsha coolies outside, sleeping in the sun, whistled as they slept. The fish in the river leaped from the water and flipped their fins in sheer ecstacy, and well they should, for the Consul General's fish coolie, obeying a special mandate from the boss himself, had dug up a fine batch of worms for them and had cast them, unattached to any hooks, into the happy river.

Lillie Mae Wilkinson sang Bananas as she clicked her Remington, which in the twinkling of an eye had transformed itself into a Steinway Grand. Judge Jacobs, who from long experience on the Mixed Court bench has grown to think that all men are crooks made a special trip upstairs to tell Tommy Wright that in all his life he had never met an untruthful lawyer, and Tommy, to show that he felt that way about it, dug into his own pocket and fished out three hundred and forty-six gold dollars which he presented to a bleary eyed deckhand who had gone on a bust the while his ship had sailed away to Hongkong. "Buy yourself a ticket back to the States on one of Heinie Krull's best boats and when you get there start life all over again with my compliments," Tommy told the sailor.

The very bricks in the Consulate wall exuded delight. The breezes that ankled through the garden, disregarding the October haze in the air, wooed the leafless trees with April caresses, while high in the sky the warm sun looked down and smole a smile

PAPYRUS, owned by Ben Irish, British gentleman farmer, winner of the last English Derby, meets Zev, Harry F. Sinclair's horse in a special race of one and a half miles at Belmont Park, Long Island, today for a purse of $100, 000, of which the winner will get $80,000.

SPEED SHOWN BY PAPYRUS; ODDS 6 TO 5

English Champion Makes Good Time In Last Trials Before Race

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Oct. 18.—Papyrus did a good speed trial this morning in his final long distance gallop before Saturday's race. He was ridden by Donoghue and covered a mile in 1 min. 38 3-5 secs. and nine furlongs in 1 min. 51 2-5 secs. The Derby winner was never extended, and critical observers were unanimous that it was the most impressive performance shown by either candidate. 6 to 5 are now the best odds obtainable against Papyrus.

The jockey Sande will ride Zev.

(Exclusive CHINA PRESS)

Washington, Oct 19.—Admiral Cary T. Grayson, owner of "My Own," generally accredited with being the nearest rival to "Zev," the American horse which races against "Papyrus," the British Derby winner, on Saturday at Belmont Park, today said that he was ready to race "My Own" against the winner of the race. The proposed race would be run at the Laurel, Maryland, track for a side bet of $50,000 and a purse on October 25.

Correspondence

Sports Editor: I wish to correct some mistakes in the article which appeared in "The Press" yesterday in regard to the E. C. I. A. A. Tennis Tournament to be held on the courts of the Southeastern University and the University of Nanking on the coming Friday, Saturday and Monday. The article referred to a doubles trophy to be given by the "Agents of the Spaulding Athletic Goods Co.," and a singles trophy to be given by "the Ramsay Co."

Nothing is known officially by the Association of a trophy from the Spaulding agency. Nor is there a "doubles trophy" offered in the Association. The Slazenger balls are the official balls of the Association and arrangements are practically complete for a trophy from the Slazenger Company to be known as "The Slazenger Cup." This cup goes to the winners of the Tournament, including three singles and two doubles in each match. Another cup is offered by Mr. N. B. Ramsay, the representative of the Slazenger Company. This cup, to be known as "The Ramsay Cup," goes to the Singles Champion.

These two trophies are to replace two similar trophies given by the same donors to the Association some years ago. The first trophies have become the permanent property of members of the Association.

The article referred to above intimated that Hangchow College would not enter a team. This also is an error according to official reports from that member of the Association.

Thanking you for space for these corrections, I am, Yours sincerely,

W. C. Lowdermilk,
Chairman Tennis Committee, E. C. I. A. A.

Eddie Smith And Battling Kyko Battle To Draw

An interesting program of boxing was staged last night at the opening of the Shanghai Athletic Association's new quarters on Kiangse Road, (in rear of the Gas Co's. office) the main bout being a four round affair between Eddie Smith and Battling Kyko, which was declared a draw.

The curtain raiser was between Kid Rosario and Joe Chanty, a four round scrap which also ended in a draw, Kid Willie and Kid Fernandez then battled four lively rounds for a cup presented by Mr. Phillips. This was an interesting scrap and as the battling was about even all the way the result was called a draw. Both boys got a cup.

Billy Wallers and Toledo appeared in the semi-final, Toledo getting the decision after four good rounds of hard scrapping. This match was for two cups, one for each boxer, presented by Freddy Ellas. It was a fast, clean bout that was greatly enjoyed by the spectators.

Billy Bellew has got the decks cleared for the association's new gymnasium, and has started to put in equipment. There is a punching bag in place and Billy says he will have other fat annihilating machines in position in a few days. A good shower bath has been installed and taken all in all the place is beginning to take on the appearance of a first class gymnasium and athletic headquarters.

Swedish Minister To Japan Here; Going To Peking

The Swedish Minister to China and Japan, Mr. O. Ewerlof arrived here yesterday from Tokio by the s.s. Empress of Asia and is staying at the Astor House. Mr. Ewerlof is going to remain in Shanghai some days before proceeding to Peking in his official capacity and will be entertained tonight at a banquet to be given at the Astor House Hotel by the Consul General for Sweden here Mr. J. Lilliehook, to which have been invited local Chinese Officials, the members of the Consular Body and members of the Swedish community. Members of the latter one are planning entertainments for the Minister.

ALL this was a mystery, and a mystery it remained until about 9 o'clock last night, at which hour I telephoned Artie Barrett to ask what time he wanted to go to Kiangwan Sunday to play golf.

"Hey!" said Artie, with wrath in his voice, "Just wait till I ketch you!"

"Ketch me? Why you talkee so fashion?"

"You have talkee me," said Artie, "that I must give the Consul General eight strokes?

"Well, wasn't that fair?

"Fair your foot! Do you know what that bird did to me?"

"Who, the Consul-General? That duffer!

"Duffer hell! You wouldn't think he was a duffer if you had seen me signing chits for balls at the nineteenth hole. What puzzles me is where he will find a godown big enough to store his loot!"

"Who, the Consul-General?"

"The Consul-General himself! Ye Gods, what a cleaning that goof handed me. I'm lucky to have a shirt left, and if you think you did me a favor by steering me into him why all I can say is you are plumb and completely loco!"

"What did he go around in?"

"Yeh, what did he do a round in? Say it with flowers! All the strokes he required for the entire eighteen holes was eightytwo strokes, net—and that's the guy you said I should spot eight strokes!"

"Who, the Consul-General? The Consul-General went around in eightytwo?

"I'll say he did!"

"Did he hole all his putts?".

"He didn't have to hole them; the holes jumped right out of the greens and ran to meet his ball when they saw it coming! Eight strokes—and he trimmed the tar out of me without any strokes! Take it from me, as a handicapper you are a swell little dog watcher!"

TODAY, when the President Wilson sails, she will carry with her an official document, bearing the seal of the Consul-General at Shanghai and addressed to the Secretary of State, at Washington. And the substance of this document, Mr. Hughes will find when he reads it, is a recommendation that everybody on the Consulate staff in Shanghai have his pay doubled and then be pensioned for life.

For that is the way the genial Mr. Cunningham felt yesterday afternoon about four o'clock, when he returned from Kiangwan with his eighty-two, and that is why the neighborhood of the Consulate suddenly became suffused in an atmosphere of deep, hilarious pink.

Y.W.C.A. Meeting Opens Sessions At Hangchow

(China Press Correspondence)

Hangchow, Oct. 19.—The national convention of the Young Women's Christian Association, and China's first national convention of women descended on Hangchow last night 160 strong. Local organisations sent prominent representatives to meet the distinguished guests at the railway station and to conduct them to their hotel headquarters on West Lake. The long line of rickshas of nothing but women and women's baggage attracted interested attention and comments along the line of march and when it was learned that they had come from such distances as Canton, Hongkong, Changsha, Peking and Mukden the wonder grew.

The convention is wasting no time in getting down to business. Preliminary preparations of the local Y.W.C.A. were well carried out and guests were quickly assigned to their living quarters, both in the hotel-headquarters and local homes.

The first session, a devotional period led by Dr. H. T. Hodgkin, was held this morning at nine o'clock. Mornings are given fully to the discussion of technical organisation and execution of programs, with one formal address, while afternoons are a combination of business sessions and outings. The adoption of a constitution and the formal organisation of the national committee of the Y.W.C.A's of China are perhaps the most important items on the agenda.

Local committees are arranging receptions, teas and one or two longer outings which will acquaint the delegates with the city and its local religious leaders. The Union Committee of Hangchow entertains the convention Sunday afternoon.

The national Y.W.C.A. Movements of Australia, England, Japan and the United States are represented in the convention, and each will speak their greetings to the convention through their representatives. Dr. T. T. Liu of Peking University addresses the convention on Sunday afternoon and on Sunday morning the pulpits of the churches of the city are to be filled by convention delegates.

Masaryk Confer With Poincare

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Oct. 18.—The managing committee of the Patriotic League today gave a reception to President Masaryk at which General Pau and other notables were present. The Vice President of the League read an address in which he declared: "It is more than ever necessary to have intimate union between France, Poland, Belgium and the States of the Little Entente to assure the integral execution of the Treaty."

After the sitting of the Cabinet today M. Poincare received President Masaryk, with whom he had a long conversation.

See Kee Rubber Estates Meeting

The annual general meeting of the See Kee Rubber Estates (1918) Ltd. was held yesterday. The Chairman's speech was as follows:

Gentlemen: When I had the privilege of addressing you last year this Company was sailing in very troubled waters. We were keeping afloat at the very heavy expense of money borrowed and secured under a Debenture Issue @ 15% interest, the Company was not earning enough at the current prices of rubber to pay its way and had been compelled to ask Debenture holders to permit interest to be credited to them in lieu of cash payment. The Company's thanks are due to the Debenture holders for granting this indulgence. However, the advent of compulsory restriction completely altered the hopeless prospects of the Company and so early as the middle of February an offer was received and accepted to take up all the unissued capital of Tls. 25,000 at par, the Debentures were paid off with interest up to date and the Company aided by the improved state of the market entered into a new lease of life. Today the position is so changed that instead of Shanghai sending money to the Estate, the Estate is sending money to Shanghai. Having weathered that particularly fierce storm we hope now to have a long period of plain sailing and I trust the day is not far distant when shareholders may look for some return on their investment.

We have now had almost a year's experience of Compulsory Restriction and a large section of the rubber planting industry, this Company especially, owes its salvation to the beneficial effects of the same. I feel it would not be out of place to record this Board's appreciation of the benefits derived from the enactment and its gratitude to those who framed and brought the restriction scheme into operation.

Regarding estate matters I am pleased to say all reports point to the property being in first class condition, well maintained by our Manager, Mr. W. A. Smith whose work is spoken of as most excellent. Mr. Welch on behalf of our Secretaries and Managers visited the estate in July and gave us a most encouraging report especially as concerns the deep rich soil and the splendid bark recovery, the latter a most vital and important point.

During the year we produced a crop of 142,000 lbs. and could easily have produced considerably more had there been no Restriction, but what we lost in crop we more than gained in enhanced prices, for whereas the previous year we averaged a sale price of 6.94 pence, the year under review averaged 11.81 pence. We shall do considerably better for the current year. In passing, I would mention that we have 2 tons monthly sold forward at 65 cents per lb. to December 1923.

Our cost of production as shewn in the accounts was enhanced by export duty and interest on debentures, the latter item happily now a thing of the past. It is difficult to be accurate in forecasting the current year's cost so much depends on the crop we may be allowed to produce, but I think around 9¼ pence per lb including Shanghai expenses will be near the mark. This may no appear very cheap but I would emphasise that See Kee is a small property carrying a comparatively large overhead expense, a point to remember when comparing it with much larger estates. On the other hand our capitalisation of Tls. 100,000, equivalent to Tls. 224 per acre is very small one of the cheapest in Shanghai we have no debts, and we shall, if all goes well, be able to pay excellent dividends in due course.

Coming to the Accounts as presented, the Estate itself returned, as per the Working Account, a profit of Tls. 6,348.43 which was a little more than swallowed up in Shanghai Expenses and Debenture Interest, together amounting to Tls. 6,676.57. We also had to start a Reserve fund for Manager's Leave pay and passage and these provisions show us a small loss on the year of Tls. 1,224.01, which brings the total deficit in the Balance Sheet to Tls. 32,626.11. I want to emphasise although we have this book loss before us that the Company is not in debt but has actually money in the bank.

Gentlemen, that is all I have to report. I now have pleasure in proposing:

Resolution No. 1. viz:

That the printed Report and Audited Statement of Accounts for the Financial Year ended 30th June 1923 as circulated to Shareholders be adopted.

This is seconded by Mr. R. N. Swann.

Geentlemen, the resolution is open to discussion. I invite your questions and comments.

The following Resolutions were duly passed at the Fifth Annual General Meeting, held at 10 Canton Road, Shanghai, on Friday 19th Oct. 1923, at 4 p.m.

Resolution No. 1. That the printed Report and Audited Statement of Accounts for the Financial Year ended 30th June 1923 as circulated to Shareholders be adopted.

Resolution No. 2. That Mr. R. Swann the retiring Director be re-elected a Director of the Company.

Resolution No. 3. That the appointment of Mr. G. Grayrigge as a Director is hereby confirmed.

Resolution No. 4. That Messrs Lowe, Bingham and Mathews be re-elected the Company's Auditor for the ensuing year.

Conseil d'Administration Municipale de la Concession Francaise de Changhai

NOTICE

MUNICIPAL LOAN, OF 1923

8.000 debentures of Tls. 100 each
(issued at Tls. 97 each)

Rate of interest 6% per annum

The "Conseil d'Administration Municipale de la Concession Francaise de Changhai" hereby invite subscriptions for 8.000 debentures of Tls. 100 each, issued at Tls. 97 each according to the resolution passed at their General Meeting on the 14th May 1923.

The conditions on which the Debenture Certificates will be issued are:

1°.—The Debenture Certificates are transferable, and the person whose name is entered in the Register of Debenture Certificate or Certificates, shall alone be recognised and treated by the Council as the lawful and rightful holder and owner of such Debenture Certificate or Certificates.

2°.—The Debentures will be issued at Tls. 97 each.

3°.—The Debentures will be redeemable at par (Tls. 100 each) in not less than 10 years and not more than 30 years, from 1st December 1933 and according to the figures determinated by the Council.

4°.—The Debentures will bear interest at 6% per annum, payable on the 31st day of May and 30th day of November in each year, when interest warrants will be issued to the registered owners.

5°.—The Debenture Certificates will be issued and bear interest from 1st July 1923.

6°.—Applications for Debentures will be received at the Secretary's Office, Rue du Consulat, from June 20 next.

A cheque representing the amount of debentures asked for and payable on June 30th must be deposited at the same time.

7°.—Applications for Debentures under 97 will not be recognised by the Council.

8°.—For further informations, apply to Mr. P. Legendre, Secretary, French Municipal Council.
Shanghai, 31st May 1923.

By order,
P. LEGENDRE
Secretary.

If you have business in the Far East—

The kind of a bank you need to help you is one whose business is exclusively of the Far East—

A BANK whose name and reputation will win the respect and confidence of your customers—a bank that is versed in the methods of the East: that knows its customs and markets—a bank that is your experienced business counselor as well as your financial agent.

Such a Bank is the

EQUITABLE EASTERN BANKING CORPORATION

ORGANISED and managed by the officers and directors of The Equitable Trust Company of New York, it will give you the same prestige abroad and the same personal service that distinguishes the parent organization—with the added convenience of a separate bank devoted exclusively to Oriental business.

Call at our New York or Shanghai Offices, and let us tell you how we can help you.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

Shanghai, October 19, 1923

Spot and forward bar silver were each unchanged in London yesterday, as well as in New York. The London-New York cross rate declined to 452½.

Our official quotations here today were unchanged from yesterday and our market here, particularly for Sterling, was inclined to be on the firm side.

There were generally sellers of Sterling at 3s. 0⅞d. for October delivery, 3s. 0⅞d. November and 3s. 0⅞d. for December-January.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at 69⅝ for near and forward deliveries and sellers of Yen at 70⅛.

Banks were quoting 3s. 1½d., 70½ and 1190 for Sterling, Gold Dollar and Franc bills respectively.

China sold a small amount of silver in London yesterday and India bought, the market closing steady. New York also report their market as steady.

Hankow Market

The British Chamber of Commerce of Hankow write as follows in their weekly circular dated Hankow, October 10.

Bar Silver 32¼ ready 31⅜ forward on the 3rd dropped steadily all the week and closed 31⅜—31 on the 9th inst. New York-London cross rate 454⅜ on the 3rd rose steadily all the week to 456⅛ on the 6th inst. dropped to 455⅛ on the 8th inst., but closed firm at 455 7-16 on the 9th inst. T.T. 32¼ on the 3rd inst., dropped to 3-2 on the 5th inst., owing to the rise on Shanghai Cross Rate and 3-1¾ on the 6th inst., and 3-2½ on the 9th. 4 m/c which were placed at 32 15-16 at the beginning of the week were done as low as 3-2 9-16 at the close. Market rates: Shanghai taels 97.225. Local currency $70.45. Native interest 14%.

Imports.—Piece Goods:—There is quite a distinct improvement in this market and several sales from stock are reported. Clearances are much better.

Yarn:—Market stronger and prices rising slowly. Business has been done from stock and clearances are brisk.

Exports.—Business in sesamum seed and tallow is still extremely difficult, whilst demand for wood oil is still very slow; stocks of this latter commodity are getting very low and as only insignificant arrivals can be expected from up-country until the advent of the new season, it is expected that prices will go higher still before very long. Hides and albumen are in fair demand, but stocks at hand are nearly exhausted.

Analysis of exports for week ending October 5:

Cow hides to Shanghai 23, Germany 133, Italy 225 and Japan 271 piculs.

Buffalo hides to France 249 piculs.

China grass to Shanghai 765, China ports 974, France 425, Belgium 551 and Japan 1,650 piculs.

Vegetable tallow to Shanghai 881 and China ports 287 piculs.

Animal tallow to Shanghai 50 piculs.

Gall nuts to Shanghai 62, China ports 78 and France 210 piculs.

Raw cotton to Shanghai 20,806, China ports 1,107, United Kingdom 1,304 and Japan 456 piculs.

Bristles to Shanghai 30, United Kingdom 344, America 15, France 59 and Germany 102 piculs.

Sesamum seed to Shanghai 1,628, China ports, 1,616, Germany 1,861, Italy 1,680, Holland 1,680 and Egypt 179 piculs.

Beans to Shanghai 3,744, China ports 1,079 and France 5,040 piculs.

Sesamum seed oil to China ports 99 piculs.

Groundnut oil to China ports 8 piculs.

Wood oil to Shanghai 2,116, China ports 1,550, America 2,688, France 1,346, Germany 1,431 and Spain 17 piculs.

Tea oil to Shanghai 142 and China ports 16 piculs.

EXTRACT FROM EXPERT REPORT:

"Having visited most of the cement factories of Great Britain, America and Europe, I am in a position to form an opinion of the relative merits and faults of each.....but my experiences lead me to the conclusion that 'pride of place' must unquestionably be given to the Holderbank Factory in Switzerland .....In design and construction it is a model without rival in any country." W. H. Brown, A. M. I. Mech. E., leading authority in England on cement manufacturing.

The Wisdom of the ancient Sage and the technical experiences of a modern authority on cement manufacturing have guided us to instal a set of machinery in our Lungwha Works which is an exact model of the one used by the Holderbank factory, Switzerland, and supplied by the original patentees with numerous latest improvements. The cement we are now supplying our customers is the product of that "perfect instrument."

Mr. Quezon's Program

THE leader of the Filipino separatists has at last, and at least, developed a commendable degree of frankness, says the New York Tribune. "Our object," he says, "is to reduce the Governor General of the Philippine Islands to a mere figurehead. It is unpatriotic for any Filipino to stand by Governor Wood in his policies." As he adds that to say this is to betray no secret, we may assume that this is the generally recognised policy and purpose of his more or less numerous followings.

That, it will be observed, is a complete confirmation of what we have hitherto said—that Mr. Quezon and his followers are trying to substitute a European system of government for the American, by making the executive department subordinate to the legislative. That is, of course, a violation not only of the American Constitution and the whole American theory of government, but also of the specific act—the Jones law—under which the present Philippine government exists. This latter fact is openly admitted by Mr. Quezon's lieutenant, Mr. Roxas, the Speaker of the Philippine House of Representatives, who says: "Filipino members of the Cabinet and our other representatives in the government have encroached on the powers and prerogatives of the Governor General. That is true. We have encroached upon the rights of the Governor General." And Mr. Quezon added that the Filipinos wanted a government similar to that of a British self-governing colony.

The essential point, in addition to that of the law, which these gentlemen appear to overlook is that the Governor General of the Philippines is the direct appointee of the President of the United States, and is his personal representative, his pro-consul. Possibly they conceive it to be fitting that the President of the United States should appoint "a mere figurehead" to be his alter ego and should thus presumptively confess himself to be of that same timber. In this they may have been encouraged by General Wood's predecessor, who seemed eager to be regarded and to be treated as "a mere figurehead," and who considered it a pernicious feature of the American system that a chief executive should be anything other than a figurehead.

We have an idea, however, that neither Leonard Wood nor Calvin Coolidge is minded to play the part of "a mere figurehead," but even at the demand of Mr. Manuel Quezon. Distressing as it may be to the latter, the Jones law is still in force, and the government of the Philippine Islands is still a part of the general system of American government. Those islands have the status of a territory of the United States of America, and not of a self-governing colony of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

New York is trying to discover whether or not there is a 'hot dog' trust there's such a howl gone up from the Coney Islanders over the latest raise in price.

TO M. R. U.
(Leaving Shanghai)

Boy that once with freckled cheek
Roamed the lanes and swam the creek,
Plucked the apples from the bough—
Where in thunder are they now?

Lad that sang the livelong day,
Sang the summer all away,
Songs that helped thee reap and plow—
Where in thunder are they now?

Kid, oft kid with laughing eyes,
Seeking maiden's heart for prize—
Maiden's heart and maiden's vow,
Where in thunder are they now?

Apple, song, and maiden kind—
Memories left far behind.
What avails the furrowed brow?
Where in thunder are they now?

Youth that on the seven seas
Searchest for thy magic breeze,
Winds to waft a fairy scow—
Tell me, wilt thou find them now?

Somewhere gardens peaceful grow,
Oceans of contentment flow . . .
Here's our blessing! Make thy bow—
Live in luck, and start right now!

A Word To Washington

The following editorial from the North China Daily Mail, a British newspaper published in Tientsin, was evidently inspired by the resignation of Mr. Stuart J. Fuller, the American Consul-General there.

While we do not disguise our admiration of many things American, there is one element in American institutions which cannot but be deplored. The treatment of its Consular officers on the China coast—and much the same elsewhere—by the United States Government is a marvel of meaness and short sight. In earlier years it was sufficiently notorious, when American interests on this coast were comparatively small, with no visible indication of ever increasing, but now that those interests have increased by leaps and bounds, and the American Government has become, by the fortune of war, the wealthiest government in the world, it would be thought that better conditions were in store for its official representatives abroad, who are engaged in promoting the commercial prosperity which means so much. The scandal of underpayment in the Consular service, however, grows worse. It is true the Washington Government by a recent Act made some slight addition to Consular pay, but what it gave with one hand it took back with the other, by disallowing exchange compensation. The result is that an American Consul must either abide in penury as a hermit bachelor, or if he perfer to live a civilised life, he must have substantial private means with which to supplement his official stipend. He pays for the privilege of being Consul, and Consular duty nowadays is not a thing to be taken up as a recreation. Yet only a man of means, who is prepared to live largely on his own resources, can undertake it.

This has long been known in China ports, and as it appeared to be an affair of American domestic policy, it did not greatly trouble other nationals. The affairs of the foreign communities nowadays, however, are closely interwoven, especially those of British and American mercantile houses, so that what affects one is liable to affect all. We in Tientsin labour under an especial grievance in being deprived, as announced by the North China Daily Mail last night, of one of the most popular and able consular officers who has ever done duty in this port, for no other reason, as we believe, than that the Washington Government does not see the necessity of offering adequate emoluments. In the British service, where a similar complaint used to be made, with good grounds, some reform has been effected, and the service is at least sufficiently attractive as a rule to provide occupation for a lifetime to an exceptionally able type of men. The benefits of continuous service are felt by all concerned. Some day Washington will see things in the same light, but at present it rivals the Chinese Government in its economies at the expense of public officials.

-:- Circumnavigators -:-

BY LARRY LEHRBAS

Back in the Little Red Schoolhouse of yesteryear it was an audacious act to run eager hands around the geography globe and allow your thoughts to meander in dream-scenes of far distant, fantastic lands across the sea where the people dressed differently, ate differently and different foods, and had strange, fantastic customs and manners.

Out here—half—way around this mundane sphere from almost anywhere you live—a little trip to Calcutta, or back to New York or London is simply a prosaic undertaking to be taken at a moment's notice.

Even with our tourist sophistication, however, trips circumnavigating the globe are well worth more than casual mention. And when you get a couple of dozen circumnavigators together spinning yarns about their trials and tribulations and adventures in various and sundry odd corners of the map it's a merry evening.

THE CIRCUM'S

Some years ago some of the more clubbily inclined roving spirits got together and organised a little club called The Circumnavigators in New York City. The primary object was to get-together once in awhile and spin a few yarns, eat a good dinner, and keep in touch with others. The dinners didn't come often enough, however—and then some of the gang were just leaving for Rio or Tibet or Timbuctoo anyway—so they decided to publish a little magazine. "The Log" is the result of that happy idea. It's filled each issue with gossip about their brethern circumnavigtors, where they are what they're doing to chase Old Man Monotony away.

In time the club grew in membership as more and more globe-trotters learned of the dinners and "The Log." Today it boasts of over 500 members, each and every one a confirmed circumnavigator out after Magellan's honors.

HERE AND THERE

The headquarters are in New York City where the president, William R. Strickland, keeps tabs on all departures and arrivals from his own crows-nest. There are branches in Montreal, Buenos Aires—the Wild Bull of the Pampas' home town—London, where Major General Sir Newton J. Moore, K. C. M. G., M.P., holds open house—and Shanghai.

The Hon. William Howard Taft, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court and former President, is Honorary President, and General Pershing, Admiral Sims, Sir Thomas Lipton, Sir Harry Lauder and Harry Houdini, as well as numerous lesser lights who have travelled millions of miles are among the members. Shanghai and the rest of China boast of quite a few. Major Arthur Bassett, Mr. E. A. L. Best, Mr. Henry Birkett, Mr. W. Slade Bungey, of Mukden, Mr. K. P. Chen, Mr. Frederick Cudlipp, Mr. Frederick J. Deane of Tientsin, Mr. Steve Clements, Mr. Clarence E. Gauss of Tsinanfu, Mr. Philip Wallace Goldring, Mr. E. B. Gregory, Mr. E. J. Hudson, Mr. Harold Edgar Parkinson, Mr. Woodforde H. Plant of Hongkong, Mr. George Bronson Rea, Mr. Arthur L. Troy, Mr. C. F. Wolsiffer, and Mr. Douglas Yates of Hankow are the China-hands listed in "The Log."

TOUGH GUYS

The club badge is a round button with several magical c's inserted in other C's like the puzzle boxes of yesteryear. The certificate of membership is a masterpiece of journalistic art.

The kernel of the idea is contained in one passage:

"This certificate is printed on parchment, and bound in tough hide of a pig. Thus de we prove that a quality despicable in the hide of one type of animal is admirable in the hide of another. This certificate is wired with good copper, faced with strong khaki, and printed to rest in the pocket of a unit of the crew until he presents it as a pass to the Boatman on the first and last river whether in the meantime he spends scorching hours burying limp candles in the Australia deserts or hopeless nights hibernating under moist snowbanks in Siberia. It is a key to the heart of any man who holds its duplicate."

And again:

"To be eligible a man must have made a circuit of the globe, longitudinally, and be vouched for by three members. Bounders, remittance men, and other haloed Hooligans are not invited. They are interesting only on the horizon, offensive in the middle distance, and impossible in the foreground. Our gatherings are in the foreground."

DINNER HERE

And now comes the secret. The Circumnavigators dwelling in this prosaic Settlement, their nostrils once more inhaling the entrancing whiffs from Somewhere and their feet itching once more with the restlessness of adventurer's footsteps, are planning on getting together and having a dinner.

And if there are any more eligibles who have circumnavigated the globe and would like to sit down to chow with kindred spirits who have also "been there" it might be a good idea for them to get in touch with some of the Circumnavigators in Shanghai and talk it over.

More Truth Than Poetry

BY S. E. KISER

The saddest words of tongue or pen
Continue to bring grief to men.
And often, bringing doubts or fears,
The saddest words reach women's ears.
When any boy has learned to care,
These words don't seem exactly fair:
"I'm sending back your cheap old ring:
Get some one else to wear the thing."
These words cause women's joy to flit;
"The cook's left word that she has quit."
How sad it is at close of day
For man to hear his darling say:
"We're dining out tonight—be quick!
Get shaved, and don't look like a Hick."
It gives a mother little joy
To hear these words: "They've pinched your boy.
"He thought the speed law was a joke,
Until the cop rode up and spoke."
How sad it is when bosses say:
"You're through; step down and get your pay."
"The saddest words of all," said Binks,
"I heard the other day, methinks.
"My wife had been extremely ill;
She'd lost all hope, and made her will.
"Through all my life I've bravely tried
To look upon the brighter side.
"But saddest of all words, by far
Were those through which I got a jar
"When from the doctor's lips there fell
The cruel verdict: 'She'll get well!'"
But as for me, the saddest word
Of all that I have ever heard
Began to grieve me long ago,
And it disturbs me still—it's "No."

What Women Wear

If all the designers and all the dressmakers and all the parasol manufacturers and all the fashion writers were to get their heads together in a conspiracy to bring parasols into popularity they wouldn't be able to succeed—unless it was the psychological moment for a parasol revival. For women have to be in a certain mood to be willing to carry parasols. Some few women are always in a parasol mood, they are willing to carry them every summer and only desist when to do so would make them conspicuous. There are other women who are never in a parasol mood. They feel ridiculous carrying anything in the shape of a parasol or umbrella save as a shield against rain. But the very great majority of women are in a parasol mood only in certain seasons.

It is a trick of the season to carry a parasol decorated with painted flowers to match the artificial flowers worn on one's hat. Flowerstrewn parasols are an extravagance of the season. Buttercups, roses, chrysanthemums, violets are among the flowers so used. If you have a parasol of last season that has lost its original freshness you might make use of this idea, arranging artificial flowers on it yourself.

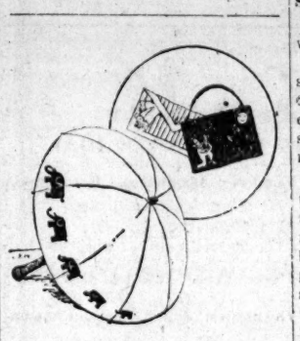
There is a fashion for carrying your parasol closed in the arms like a baby, so it really isn't necessary to wait for a bright, sunshiny day to carry your favorite parasol.

Fantastic as the handles of the new parasols are, remember that it is smart to have handles and ferrules of the same material.

Because of the prevailing influence in Paris of Indo-Chine our parasols, or some of them, are embellished with elephants. One delightful, sunshade, stubby and colorful, is in bright red with a procession of elephants; a whole family of elephants marching solemnly around it. In smart French circles there is a mania to collect mother, father and several baby elephants in rock crystal as mantel or table ornaments. An amusing idea, this.

Of all animals elephants are most fashionable. Bracelets of elephant hair are no longer an eccentric trinket brought back by friends returning from Paris. You can have them for the asking—and the paying—innn America. Women insist that they feel themselves safeguarded against bad luck when they wear an elephant hair bracelet. It is the fashionable version of the rabbit foot. An elephant hair bracelet will even counteract the baneful effect of opals and peacock feathers.

This isn't superstition—not a bit of it. It's just part of the present craze for carrying talismen and the insistence that these talismen really bring good luck. One prominent young woman, not the least devout, carries a miniature image of her name saint!



Black patent leather bag with design in silver, yellow crepe de chine pocketbook, and red parasol with black elephants.

Texas Sends Its Best Biscuit, Muffin, Cake And Pie Recipes

The first three of the following recipes are supplied by the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, and the fourth is another popular sweet potato recipe from Texas:

SWEET POTATO CUSTARD PIE

Line a tin with pastry. Fill with the following mixture:

One-half to two cups mashed sweet potato, one cup sweet milk, two eggs, two tablespoons butter, one-half cup sugar, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon grated lemon rind.

Leave out the egg whites for the meringue. Beat the yolks of the eggs into the cooked and mashed potatoes, add the melted butter and the other ingredients, pour into the pastry and bake in a moderate oven until the custard is set. Add a pinch of salt to the whites beat until dry, add two tablespoons of sugar. Mix well. Spread over top of pie and put into a very moderate oven until it is a delicate brown. A very light, delicate custard may be had if the potatoes are rubbed through a sieve or strainer or put through a ricer. One-fourth cup of cocoanut may be added to the filling, or spices may be used instead of lemon. Nutmeg and cinnamon are especially good flavoring for sweet potatoes. Orange peel, dried and powdered, is another good flavoring.

SWEET POTATO CAKE

Two-thirds cup fat, one-fourth teaspoon salt, one cup granulated sugar, one cup brown sugar, one cup hot mashed sweet potato, two cups flour one-half cup sweet milk, one teaspoon vanilla, two eggs, three teaspoons baking powder, six tablespoons cocoa (or two squares melted chocolate), one teaspoon each cloves, cinnamon, all-spice, one cup chooped nut meats (pecans or walnuts).

Cream the fat and the sugar, add egg yolks, potatoes, spices, vanilla, baking powder sifted with the flour, milk, whites of eggs well beaten and nuts rolled in flour. Bake in a moderate oven for one hour. This may be served hot or cold in pieces two inches by three inches with whipped cream sauce. The cocoa may be omitted and the cake made as a spice cake, or the spice may be omitted to make a cocoa or chocolate nut cake. Both cocoa and spices may be omitted and a plain cake may be made. All brown sugar may be used instead of part granulated.

SWEET POTATO BISCUIT
(Fifteen Biscuits)

Two cups sifted flour, one teaspoon salt, three teaspoons baking powder, one cup mashed sweet potatoes, three tablespoons shortening, liquid sufficient to mix.

Sift together the flour, salt and baking powder. Cut or rub into this the cold shortening. In the same way rub into this flour mixture the mashed potatoes. Finally, add just enough cold liquid to make the mass cling together. Do not knead. Place on floured biscuit tins and bake fifteen to twenty minutes in a moderately hot oven. Bake all potato breads more slowly than those made with flour.

SWEET POTATO MUFFINS
(Twelve to Fifteen Muffins)

One and one-half cups wheat flour, three-quarters teaspoon salt, three teaspoons baking powder, one cup cooked sweet potatoes, one or two eggs, two tablespoons shortening, liquid sufficient to make a rather stiff batter (about one-half cup).

Boil the potatoes in the skins until tender; drain, peel and mash fine or, still better, put them through a ricer or colander. Sift together the flour, salt and baking powder. Beat the eggs until light and add to the cool mashed potato.

Rainbows In Fact And In Fiction

BY GARRETT P. SERVISS

"I have just read your interesting article explaining rainbows. You say: 'In order to see a rainbow face to face one must have the sun at his back!' In Emerson Hough's book, 'The Covered Wagon,' he has two of the principal characters in the story greatly encouraged by seeing a rainbow in the west just before sunset.

"I am aware that there is a certain poetic license allowed authors, and that this rainbow appeared as a symbol of encouragement to these westernbound travelers. But I could not understand how a lover of nature like Mr. Hugh could allow such a statement to appear in his book. Replying to a personal letter he said that he had actually seen such an occurrence on the plains. I have observed nature in various moods in different countries, but have yet to see a rainbow in the west. Can it be possible?—W. H. K., Humboldt, Ariz."

* * *

A rainbow in the west is perfectly possible, and is often seen, in the morning or early forenoon, when the sun is east of the meridian. But a rainbow in the west just before sunset is, as you suppose, an impossibility, unless the term "rainbow" be extended to include phenomena not placed by physical science in the same category.

It is certain that Mr. Hough did not see a real rainbow in the west just before sunset, but there is no reason to doubt his statement that he saw something having a resemblance to a rainbow and which he supposed to be one.

What he saw was no doubt a solar halo, a phenomenon of a different order, though due to causes similar to those which give rise to the appearance of rainbows. Now, this is no more difference in the definition of words, for the two phenomena concerned ordinarily bear little likeness to one another, and they are produced in opposite conditions as respects the position of the observer, and the action of the raindrops, or the atmospheric moisture, upon the rays of light.

With the rainbow the sun is necessarily at the observer's back, the shower of raindrops is in that part of the sky which is opposite to the sun, and the centre of the circle of the rainbow, only a part of which is ordinarily visible, is situated on a straight line projected from the sun through the observer's head and so onward to the plane of the bow.

The sunlight, after passing into the water drops and undergoing a dispersion of its waves, the red being least and the blue most turned aside from the axis of the original ray, is reflected from the inside back of the drop, and finally reaches the observer's eye producing the appearance of a semi-circle of spectral colors.

With the halo the sun, as well as the phenomenon itself, is in front of the spectator, the halo appearing to surround the sun. Usually such an apparition is seen while the sun is at such an elevation that the entire circle of the halo is within sight; but a halo appearing with the sun close to the horizon, or even below it, shows only a semi-circle, or less. This may give it the form of a short rainbow, the span of the halo being less than that of the rainbow.

Moreover, the colors in the halo have a misty or sheeny appearance, and are not sharply defined and separated as in the rainbow. On rare occasions, however, these colors may bear quite a striking resemblance to those of the rainbow. The halo is produced by light that has come to the observer directly through the screen of watery or rather icy, particles whose refractive action gives rise to the phenomenon.

The rainbow as a weather portent is usually interpreted in the opposite sense to that ascribed to the halo, the former, especially when seen in the west, being a sign of clearing weather, while the halo is a signal that the elements of a storm are assembling in the upper atmosphere.

As to the rights, or limits of "poetic license," they certainly should not extend in any case to a falsification of the facts of nature. Neither poet nor novelist is entitled to misrepresent nature, unless he is declaredly dealing with purely imaginary and invented conditions.

There is not the slightest reason, however, to think that in the story you speak of, the author had any thought or intention to misrepresent a natural phenomenon. We must take him at his word, that he had seen what he took for a rainbow in the west at sunset. To call it a halo might not have served his purpose, in view of the weather saws which do not make favorable omens of those phenomena.

Jealousy

This is to be a plain word on an old subject.

Old subjects are kept new, because life in its elementals is a new story for each of us.

Love, for instance, is as old as life. And it is as new as the child just born.

Jealousy is as old as love, and as new as the latest lovers.

Jealousy is the darkness of which love is the sun. Jealousy is the ugliness of love's beauty deformed. Jealousy is the disease of the spirit, of which love is the health.

If you are a reader of newspapers, you know how frequently they chronicle the tragedy of love degenerated into jealousy.

Here, for instance, is a cabled story from Moscow. A man, married for seventeen years, had been furiously jealous of his loyal wife every minute of that time.

While away at war, he accumulated his jealous miseries as a love-miser.

Returned from war, he took her unfaithfulness for granted. His mad imagination created her guilt. But her innocence let her smile at his crazy accusations.

He almost killed her. The court gave him only three years, saying that the man had already served seventeen years in a hell of his own making.

No need to go to Russia for a tragic tale of jealousy. Here, for instance, is one recently printed in the New York American.

A Greenwich Village couple, apparently radiantly happy, though she is French and he is German!

He is an artist, good and kind, and she is devoted to him. But she became increasingly jealous of his art and of his persistent working over his canvases.

As the reporter puts it, she brooded over the thought that Rudolph's love had been weaned from her and that his paintings of nude women were the lures that held him to his work late into the night.

So, with mad jealousy, she decided to "end it all."

No, she did not kill herself or him. She seized a carving knife and cut his precious canvases into ribbons. Then she swallowed some poison tablets.

The plain word to be said about jealousy is that it is always a madness, always a sense of inferiority, always a lack of self-respect.

Do not be one of those bromidiotic persons who say that it is well for husband and wife to be jealous of each other, because jealousy is a proof of love.

Yes, it is a proof of love, but of self-love.

When you really love, you know that, while mutual affection is most beautiful, it is greater—if there must be a choice—to love than to be loved.

And whatever you may feel of jealousy, your self-respect must prevent your showing it—lest you make a pathetic show of yourself at your worst.

Love is a gift. It must not be demanded.

CASTORIA
for Infants and Children.
Don't Poison Baby.
FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have paregoric or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a few drops too many will produce the sleep from which there is no waking. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labeling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician knowing of what it is composed. Castoria does not contain narcotics.
The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria
Physicians Recommend Castoria.
"I have frequently prescribed Castoria for common ailments of children with good results." W. A. CRANDALL, M. D. Buffalo, N. Y.
"I find your Castoria is very beneficial in the treatment of children's ailments." F. DAVIS, M. D., Chicago, Ill
"As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine and, aside from my own family experience, I have, in my years of practice found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home." WM. J. MCCANN, M. D., Omaha, Neb.
"I object to what are called patent medicines, where the maker alone knows what stuff is put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use in proper cases. I judge it to be a very useful, as well as harmless family medicine." N. B. SIEGE, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

W.C.T.U. Ladies And Abstinence League Meets

Members and friends of the Shanghai Women's Christian Temperance Union and the Shanghai Total Abstinence League held a united meeting in the Union Church Lecture Hall Thursday afternoon. The ladies of the S.W.C.T.U. provided tea to welcome the guests.

After the refreshments the audience was entertained by Mrs. Cheek who rendered two violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. Levell. The chair was taken by Dr. Polk, president of the W.C.T.U., who was supported by Mr. G. E. Pree, president of the S.T.A.L.

Miss S. M. Burdick gave a most graphic and informing report of the World's Convention of the W.C.T.U. which was held in Philadelphia, Penna., in November of 1922, and which was the eleventh and largest of any in the history of that organisation. The audience was delighted especially with her report of the statements made by the European delegates, all of which went to show that the temperance sentiment was making rapid progress in the various countries.

This address was followed by an account of a business tour in the United States taken recently by Mr. N. A. Viloudaki, in which he told of his experiences in many places as Seattle, Chicago, New York, Boston, Washington, New Orleans, Los Angeles, Tacoma, and Vancouver. He described the atmosphere of most of those places as being a happy one; and he was specially struck with the great number of persons who owned their own houses, and drove their own motor cars.

Very rarely did he come in contact with drinking, although he attended business dinners in many parts. He found some people who admitted that they would have preferred a measure less strict than total prohibition; yet these friends were very strong in their opinion that the old days of the saloon were not wanted back by anyone. So far as he could see, a spirit of happiness and contentment was diffused over those parts where the prohibition law was being strictly observed.

Dr. Peter Will Speak Tomorrow

Dr. W. W. Peter, who went to Japan with the Shanghai Red Cross Unit and visited all the devastated areas, has returned to Shanghai and will be the speaker at the Sunday Service League tomorrow afternoon, at 5 o'clock in the Martyrs' Hall of the Chinese Y. M. C. A. The subject is The Japanese Earthquake, and the address will be illustrated by a series of steriopticon slides which Dr. Peter secured during his service in Japan.

Legion Funeral For 134 Miners

MEMBERS of the American Legion were among the 134 miners who met death in the explosion of the mine at Kammerer, Wyo., and members of the Legion are shown firing volleys over the graves of the dead. In the lower picture a Japanese funeral is shown, being conducted near Frontier Mine No. 1 over eight Japanese victims, who were buried in one grave.

No Wooden Image

Those opponents of President Tsao Kun who gave him the other day the nickname of Wooden Image appear to have made a mistake. The nickname is one of opprobrium, indicating a useless and senseless figure, put in position only to be looked at. The new President however has shown so far all the animation and activity of the proverbial new broom, says the North China Mail. He has not yet abolished the tuchuns with a stroke of the pen, as General Li Yuan-hung did a few weeks ago, nor has he started reforms of currency, of the army, or of the judicial administration. But he has begun to talk about all these things. The tuchuns can easily be abolished in due course by the well known process of giving them a fresh name and allowing them to go on as before. Monetary reform will doubtless take the shape of a new currency issue, making confusion worse confounded—and even postage-stamp collectors are to have their chance. One of the most interesting steps, however is in connexion with the judiciary.

It is announced that one of the first moves to be made by the new Peking Government has reference to the extraterritorial rights of foreigners. We can well believe it. The strength of Tsao Kun's Government, if it lasts will doubtless be based more and more on what may be called, without invidious meaning, its antiforeign policy, that is to say the policy of defending China for the Chinese and putting the foreigner, in a more subordinate position, or at least asserting the supremacy of the Chinese in their own country which amounts to much the same thing. This policy is calculated to give the new President that which he most needs, namely "face," popularity with his own people, and the support of the military rulers of the provinces. He has the awkward matter of Lincheng to deal with, and upon that he will have to yield to the demands of the Powers. This will not increase his prestige at the outset, but any loss that he may incur over this matter may be balanced and more than balanced in other directions. Thus the plan of bringing all foreigners in this country under Chinese jurisdiction would be a tremendous victory. It is not to be ignored that there are a certain number of foreigners who will support the Chinese in this claim. They are not the most substantial among foreigners in their interests in this country or in their own but they are among the most gifted as to the gab—men of the Bertrand Russell type in England and many more in America. Accordingly the Peking Government, whether it can now pay the salaries of its diplomats abroad or not, is finding the means to send to Europe and to the United States a diplomat-at-large, namely Mr. Chang Yao-tseng, ex-Minister of Justice, nominally to study the judicial systems of the west, with a view to introducing reform, in the judicial system of China, so that China may be in a position to take over the sovereign right of administering justice to all within her borders. Mr. Chang will also be commissioned to establish cammunications with the Press, so as to "dispel the rumours which are damaging the reputation of China's judiciary."

The adroitness of this move will be recognized. We are well aware, from the speeches and addresses of China's diplomatic representatives in England and America, how ready are the public at home to swallow a lot of stuff ladled out to them by real Chinese diplomats of skilful tongue, at dinners and on public occasions, about China's noble ambitions and the greed and avarice and overbearing methods of foreigners in China. It only needs one step further the utilisation of the Press—and the case for abolition of extraterritorial rights may make headway. Just as the Chinese have found organs of the Press in China—we have one or two specimens at our own doors—which are ready, in return for hard cash, to espouse the Chinese cause without reserve, and to betray their own country-men for the sake of pleasing their Chinese masters, so there may be found organs at home which will be ready to throw their own country-men over and champion the most grotesque Chinese claims; nor will the home papers require dollars as an inducement. It will be well to watch this new mission, which is going to write down as mere rumours and misrepresentations the stories that have penetrated to the west regarding the corruption, incompetence and worthlessness of most of the Chinese Courts, and which will represent China as a country fitted in all respects to take rank in the family of nations.

Stowaway From Vladivostok Is Brought To Court

A Russian stowaway, Koral Danel Sawech, who came to Shanghai aboard the Russian Volunteer Fleet steamer Lenin was brought into the Mixed Court before Assessor Ivanoff and Magistrate Tsang by the River Police and was ordered turned over to the Chinese authorities.

Deputy Superintendent Woodfield, of the River Police, said that he went aboard the Lenin on October 14 to ascertain if there were any refugees. He was told that there were five passengers for Shanghai and 15 for Odessa from Vladivostok but was given no information regarding the stowaway though, he said, the man had then been four days in custody aboard ship. It was not until the 17th that Mr. Elleder, local agent for the Fleet, informed him about the defendant. Mr. Elleder had promised to go aboard that day and hand the stowaway over but had not done so until yesterday, when the ship was due to sail.

The accused said that he was an army officer in Vladivostok before the Bolshevik rule and had been arrested, but later released. He still had trouble with the Bolshevik officials, however, and so tried to leave Vladivostok.

Allege Russian Misappropriated Funds Of Society

The misappropriation of $1,456 from funds belonging to the Russian Benevolent Society is charged to A. J. Booniatoff, who appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday before Assessor Ivanoff and Magistrate Tsang yesterday.

Booniatoff, who was formerly in the employ of the Society, is alleged to have taken the money during August and September of this year. The case was remanded for one week, accused to be held in custody.

Warm Clothing Still Needed By Refugees

The Emergency Relief Committee wishes to emphasise again the pressing need for warm clothing for men and women in order to equip the refugees from Japan. The clothing so kindly sent in during the last few days has been already given out to refugees passing through town and now there is need for more. Warm clothing of every description will be welcomed but especially women's costumes and flannel nightdresses and pyjamas. The supply of suitcases and travelling bags is also entirely exhausted. Please send any contributions as soon as possible to B. W. A. Headquarters, 12 Kinkiang Road.

Zionist Movies Next Monday

The invitations issued by the Shanghai Zionist Association to the local Consular Body and officials to witness the "New Palestine Film" at the Olympic Theater on October 22 at 9:15 p.m., have evoked favorable response. Among those who promised to attend are: Sir Skinner Turner, Judge Charles S. Lobingier, Messrs. E. S. Cunningham, G. N. di Rossi, J. Pelencia, S. Yada and V. Grosse.

The above film depicts in a striking manner the striving of the world Zionist Organisation to rebuild the Jewish National Homeland with the aid of Great Britain, the Mandatory Power for Palestine.

New General In Hunan Province

(Independent News Service)

Hankow, Oct. 16.—General Ma Chih, of Kwangsi formerly associated with General Lu Yung-ting, has passed here from Loyang to Yoochow where he was appointed Expeditionary Commander for Hunan through his interview with General Wu Pei-fu. General Ma will be in charge from now on of northern troop movement between Hupeh and Hunan, and should the Hunan fighting develope he will manoeuver on behalf of Wu Pei-fu.
